

To my fellow Christian friends, mentors helpers of the Shalom Reading Class! Katie, Jeff and Tim, Gary and Shannon and Frank. I want to express my gratitude and thanks for your compassion and your Volunteer Work here at the jail, hear in 4D-4C, all of your time is greatly appreciated as you all apply yourselves well. I personally have recieved a great deal from this class educational and Spiritual as well as your thoughts and input on life on the outside, my reading and writing skills that I laid dormant for years are now awakend and have begun to be fine tuned. Somethings I never really thought about for many years until my encounter with all of you. My writing skills were greatly deminished as I sat there in your ^{class} I thought if I could change that, I could change anything as you can see I have accomplished my goal. Thanks for all your encouragement and patients with me. Just as all of your wisdom and daily talks about god and the Christian Walk and way we should live has encouraged me to be a better son, father and husband as well as a good stewart in life. I pray that each and everyone of you continue your good works here at the jail you do make a difference, and that your Journey continue to be blessed Where ever god may lead you... With Love

God Bless

Larry
