CALL TO WORSHIP

One: God’s unfailing love surrounds us all as we place our trust in God.

Many: So rejoice and be glad, all you who love God!

One: Sing and shout for joy, all you whose hearts are open!

Many: Our hearts are open, and we shall declare God’s praise!

HYMN

“Open My Eyes, That I May See”.....#454

CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER

One: Those whose wrongs have been forgiven, those who no longer lie to themselves or others, and whose lives are lived with honesty, rejoice! So let those who love God do the same. Let’s come before God with honesty, and openly admit where we have fallen short of what God desires. For God alone is our hiding place, our protection in times of trouble. Let’s pray together.

All: God, we open our hearts before you today, aware that even in this moment we fall short of offering you the praise and thanksgiving you deserve. God, you have given us freedom from all our wrongdoing, and joy in exchange for heavy hearts. We can know that joy, if we will open our hearts to be loved by you. Forgive us when we fail to do so, and strengthen us as we seek to do so. Reveal to us today your steadfast love and may we declare our trust in You. Amen.
