WORSHIP

What's up with worship?

Sermon series: "Broken Beauty"

So often we do not allow the broken places of our lives to be healed, and they become something we are ashamed of. Through the work of God in Christ, our brokenness is not only redeemed, but becomes something new and beautiful that reveals the glory of God to the world.

During Lent we are examining different characters in the scriptures who struggled with their own fragility. We are allowing these characters to teach us ways to live that prepare us for the work of God's healing in Christ's death and resurrection.

This week in worship...

Lazarus, Mary and Martha are all broken in this story; they experience death, grief, and loss of hope. Jesus however knows that in the midst of it all, this dark broken moment will reveal God's glory. Lazarus being raised to life reveals to all the glory of God, and that those who believe will have life. The beauty in our brokenness is not only the healing and wholeness we find through Christ, but the glory of God who longs for us to have new life.
